I'm by myself
and not too long started many fine women have told me so there's a window pointing and we must be parted I've been a short time on a long time troubled road but I'll keep on jivin' my head's thrown back high I don't need no map scale
I can follow my eyes but if someone asks you tell 'em I feel fine over these valleys and hills my voice will fly some people say I'm a long-tail rouster but ever on my face will your eyes play other people say I'm a dust hill drifter and if the rains fall lonesome baby that's okay I'm going back to the sky kissed mountain with my collar up up up up to stop the drivin' rain I'm gonna drink from the crystal fountain and I just may catch onto the west bound train
I'm by myself
& not too long started down trouble's road lord I have come to the silver waters I'll be returning to run my race with the blazing sun
There's an iron train a-travelin' that's been rollin' thru the years
With a firebox of hatred and a furnace full of fears
If you ever heard its sound or seen its blood-red broken frame Then you've heard my voice and you know my name.

Did you ever stop to wonder 'bout the hatred that it holds Did you ever see its passengers, its crazy mixed-up souls Did you ever start a-thinkin' that you gotta stop that train
Then you've heard my voice and you know my name.

Have you ever had it on your lips or said it in your head
That the person standing next to you just might be misled Does the raving of the maniacs make your insides go insane
Then you've heard my voice and you know my name.

ONLY TIME WILL TELL

Guitar & Harmonica intro.

Also Interlude between vs.

Three men went searchin' To find Peace and Good Will;

I haven't seen them so I guess they're searchin' still Only time, Only time will tell.

Two men went searchin'
To find the perfect dawn Guess they never found it Cause they've been gone awful long
Only time, etc.

One soldier went a runnin'
To put an end to war War musta put an end to him Cause I ain't seen him no more
Only time, etc.

DREADFUL DAY
by BOB DYLAN
© 1962 by Bob Dylan

Good wine is goin' at a nickel a quart you look in your money bag & find you're one cent short

hey hey
I'd sure hate to be you
on that dreadful day.

Your clock is gonna stop on St. Peter's gate you're gonna ask him what time it is he's gonna say
'too late'

hey hey
I'd sure hate to be you
on that dreadful day.

You're gonna walk naked can't ride in no car everybody's gonna see just what you are

hey hey
I'd sure hate to be you on that dreadful day

"I'M GOIN' TO GET MY BABY OUTA JAIL"

by Len H. Chandler

Tune: "I Had To Stand And Stare" (same author)
© 1964 Fall River Music

Well, they phoned and said the word had come today / They phoned, etc.
Now I'm meetin' all the lawyers at the court house right away Yes, I'm goin' to get my baby, etc.

The highest courts all honored her appeal (twice)
They said she wasn't guilty and she got a dirty deal So I'm goin' to get my baby, etc.

Every police in this county knows her name (twice)
But I'm goin' to get my baby just the same Yes, I'm goin', etc.

Only one thing more keeps workin' on my mind / One thing more, etc.
If high court costs and lawyers fees ain't something like a fine
But I'm goin', etc.

My baby wouldn't let me pay her fine (twice)
She said she wasn't guilty and she wouldn't pay one dime
But I'm goin' to get my baby outa jail.

You know I must have walked a valley on my floor (twice) Just waitin' for her footsteps and her knockin' at my door
But I'm goin' to get my baby outa jail.

"There was a lady — a schoolteacher from Orangeburg, South Carolina, — at this benefit here, and she told about how she had gone into this white hospital waiting room when she was pregnant, and they came and arrested her because she refused to move to the Negro waiting room. This young rookie cop came and arrested her, just like off the street, without consulting the Chief or any other superiors. So when they got her in there, and saw she was pregnant, they got sort of up tight and they wanted to get rid of her because it was, you know, sort of a bad mark against them. She wasn't the usual kind of hotel guest they liked to have in the jail. And so they gave her a low bond. She was notorious in the area anyway as being a very big civil rights worker.

"But she wouldn't pay her bail. She just wouldn't pay it — because she said that she was innocent, and refused to participate. They gave her one of those quick hokey-pokey trials and gave her like a very low fine — five dollars or something — just to get rid of her. So she wouldn't pay the fine. So then she was in jail, and everybody else showed her court case up on the docket and it went to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and there the decision was reversed in her favor — they said to turn her loose, right? And so I wrote this song as if I were her husband at home waiting to come and get her.

"She, by the way, and her husband were fired from their respective jobs. She was a schoolteacher, and he was teaching at the University. They were both fired for their participation in the movement."— Len Chandler, introducing above song on a tape recording, Sept., 1964.

"BROADSIDE #51

4" (Narrate) Oh, listen! Good people, a story I'll tell
Of a great swamp in Florida, a place called 'Tate's Hell'...
One hundred and forty square watery miles
With millions of 'skeeters and big yellow flies,
And where all about the moccasins lie
With glittering death in their beady eye, Where bull-gators bellow and panthers squall.
Now this is a place to be shunned by all.

Old Tate left Su- ma- tra a-long a-bout dark.
He had his two big dogs and a pup-py named Spark,
A long Tom shot-gun, a sharp bar-low knife, that pan-ther would sure have, (guitar) the chase of his life! (guitar)

A little past moon-down
The dogs struck the scent;
Thru bramble and ti-ti
A-running Tate went;
For hours and hours,
Until it was dawn;
Then Tate knew that he was A long way from home.

He leaned back to rest,
And his eyes did not see;
The big rattler struck him
Above the bent knee;
The lick was so hard
That a-sprawling he fell;
This was the beginning Of poor old Tate's Hell!

He opened his harlow
And grabbed his some moms;
A cut he made one-way,
Another across;
He wrapped his leg tightly
And tied it with string;
Then sickness came on him,
His body turned green.

When Tate was discovered
These words he did tell,
'My name is Old Tate, Boys!
I've just been in Hell!' These few-spoken words Were the last that he said;
His spirit it left him,
Old Tate he was dead.

(Narrate)
No man can dispute
This legend of yore —
Now Tate lived a full week
And then five days more,
And somehow crawled out Close to Carrabelle,
From the deep-ghostly swamp
That we know as 'Tate's Hell.'

Note: This swamp, located near the little Florida town of Sumatra, is still one of the most formidable in the United States. It is said Tate was a young man when he entered the swamp. When he emerged 12 days later his face was that of the aged and his hair had turned snow white. The notes for the guitar can best be handled by "hammering on".

A Very Close Friend a Mine

Words & Music By RICHARD BLACK © 1971 by Richard Black

1. Len got a pain—in his vein And that means it looks like rain And there ain't no sunshine—For a very close friend a mine. For a very close friend a mine

2. There's a man way across town If Len is lucky he can run him down For him to screw him blind
   Running numbers on a friend a mine
   Running numbers on a friend a mine.

3. In a poison paint chipped room He plays solitaire with doom
   And I pray that he don't go blind
   He's a very close friend a mine
   He's a very close friend a mine

4. Lenny's been doin' it for years Hiding from his fears
   And you say that he's to blame
   And I say that we're all to blame
   And I say that we're all to blame.
   (Hum through one verse)

5. And there just ain't no pain After racing with your vein
   On the devil's freeway
   -- He died yesterday --
   And there ain't no sunshine
   For a very close friend a mine
   For a very close friend a mine.

MOON SONG

by MIKE MILLIUS
© 1969 Mike Millius

I just heard a man
he spoke from behind the moon
he's so right on time
not a moment too late or too soon Oh, but really bothered me oh well I guess it's what he said he said Peace & Brotherhood'll be yours and mine have faith in all mankind and just in case it crossed your mind that's the King James version so you better bow your head but I just couldn't believe him you see, I seen him fore he ever goed I was hitchhikin' down to see him off and he passed me on the road but it's not so much the ride as what I'm really afraid he feels inside, and I don't have to look past my empty room, or into the outside 'round the moon and maybe that he left just a little too soon Well, I just heard a man

he spoke from behind the moon
he's so right on time
not a moment too late or too soon oh, but come on there gotta be a better way for the folks to spend their pay and as this world gets more unsafe we'll all move to outer space and the man just to prove his worth he'll say welcome to my house 'cause I was here first

Oh, Man!  Oh, Moon!
Oh! Oh! Maybe just a little too soon
THE TRAIN FOR AUSCHWITZ
by TOM PAXTON © 1963 by Cherry Lane Music

I see a long train comin'—across the Polish plains,
The passengers it carries—ain't comin' back—again.

This train is bound for Auschwitz Like many another one
The passengers condemned to die
But no crime have they done

They are jammed into the boxcars
So tight against the wall
And in those cars the dead men stand
There is no room to fall

Now the reason they are dying
I will explain to you Adolf Hitler has decided To exterminate the Jew

He ships them off to Auschwitz
The train unloads them there And standing by the railroad track
They take their last breath of fresh air

The S.S. troopers herd them Right down a well worn path Into a hall where they are told
They are to take a bath

When they're undressed they're led inside
A giant shower room
The door is sealed behind them
And it also seals their doom

Inside the room there drops a bomb
Of Nazi poison gas
And not one soul is left alive
When fifteen minutes pass

Now the men who did these awful crimes
They wish they'd murdered more The only thing they're sorry for Is that they lost the war

And hundreds of these murderers Still walk the earth today
Just hoping for a chance to kill The ones that got away

HUNGER AND COLD
by Phil Ochs © 1965 Barricade Music

I've been all around your dirty old city Been all around your dirty old town
I've slept in your alleys, I've slept in your subways Hunger and cold, they follow me down

CHORUS:
Hunger and cold, hunger and cold
I wouldn't mind but I'm growing so old But as long as I am, you know I'm still a man And I wouldn't mind but I'm growing so old

Only last year I was rolling in money Only last year the good times would roll Only last year my friends were so many But only last year was so long ago (CHO)

It's all so easy to throw me in prison It's all so easy to just walk on by But it's not so easy to see a man hungry
It's not so easy to look in his eye (CHO)

Yes there's poison in my cheap rotten liquor There's poison in every old garbage can But the worst kind of poison is in your own brain
When you look at me and forget I'm a man (CHO)

CHANGING HANDS
by Phil Ochs © 1965 Barricade Music

Dam has burst and it's not the first It won't be the last Wasted walls were bound to fall
And they're falling fast

Chorus:
WAKE UP, THE PARTY'S OVER, WAKE UP AND COME ON OVER YOU KNOW YOU'VE TRIED - NOW STEP ASIDE THIS OLD LAND IS CHANGING HANDS

Years were brave as we rode the waves on a stormy sea Tore the sheets as we marched the streets to a victory
(CHO)

The Berkeley roar opened up the door and it's not the same Don't feel bad but I'm sorry, Dad, it's not a football game
(CHO)

Trouble is hot in a crisis spot and the soldiers land
You can cheer and shout but you can count me out over in Vietnam
(CHO)

The spark has spread and it's freedom fed and it's going strong Everything we do leads to something new and it won't be long
